How many scholarships are awarded?

Six scholarships are available to be awarded each year.

1. Nido Qubein Scholarship in honor of one of NSA’s largest philanthropists, a past president of NSA, President of High Point University and an entrepreneur.
 - In awarding this scholarship, special consideration is given to those applicants who show a commitment to philanthropy, education, entrepreneurial spirit and diversity.
2. Jeanne Robertson Scholarship in honor of NSA past-president and nationally recognized humorist.
 - In awarding this scholarship, special consideration is given to those applicants who show an interest in education, entrepreneurial spirit and diversity.
3. Robert Henry Scholarship given in memory of NSAs past-president who established the NSA Foundation.
 - In awarding this scholarship, special consideration is given to those students who help those less fortunate or who have need for financial assistance.
4. Cavett Robert Scholarship given in memory of founder of NSA, who was an attorney and philanthropist.
 - In awarding this scholarship, special consideration is given to those students seeking advance degrees and who have provided service to community.
5. Bill Gove Scholarship given in memory of NSA’s First President who influenced and mentored many professional speakers.
 - In awarding this scholarship, special consideration is given to those students interested in education and mentoring.
6. Earl Nightingale Scholarship given in memory of an NSA innovator who made adult learning by audio a new standard worldwide.

Your one application gives you consideration for all six of the listed scholarships.

What is the amount of the scholarship?

Each scholarship is in the amount of $5,000.

How do you define “full-time” student?

Full-time status is defined by your college or university. It is determined by a specific number of hours/credits required to be eligible for full-time tuition.

Is financial need considered?

Hardship and financial need may be considered. The final decision is not based solely on financial need.

Is a video required?

The video remains optional but we strongly encourage it to be done.

How should I submit my video?

Your video should be uploaded to YouTube and the link emailed directly to Jessica@NSASpeaker.org. It is suggested you title your YouTube video as follows: Your Name, NSA Scholarship 20xx.

Do not send physical copies of DVD's or CD's with your scholarship application. They will not be viewed or accepted.

What is the committee looking for in a video?

The video should give the committee insight into what type of speaker you are. It should be of you giving a speech either in front of an audience or to a camera.

How long should my video be?

It is suggested you edit your video footage to highlight your message no longer than 10 minutes. Due to the volume of applications received, the committee would prefer highlights of your presentation rather than an entire presentation.

Does the reference letter have to be from a speech teacher or the speech/communications department head or dean?

These are scholarships for “professional speaking and training” and for those who want to or are using their speaking talents for improving the lives of others. Therefore, a reference letter is needed that attests to these interests, skills, and or abilities. If you have not taken any speech/communication classes, ask a professor and/or client that have seen you present or speak to write a reference letter.

What is the committee looking for in my 500-word essay?

In awarding scholarships, scholarship committee members consider the applicants advancement of the National Speakers Association four Key Competencies: Eloquence, Expertise, Enterprise and Ethics.
